Greetings!

To celebrate the Scouting Month which is October, and in preparation of our Councilwide Encampment, there will be a simultaneous district/school encampment and star scouts playday on September 18-19, 2015 at your respective school or district. You may have our triennial theme "I Imagine, I achieve, I Serve" or you may have your own theme that will suit your activities.

Please find below the details of the said encampment for your information and guidance

1. Participation : no limit

2 adult chaperons per 8 girl scouts

2. Qualifications: a. Girl -duly registered star/junior scouts and physically fit
b. Adult – duly registered and physically fit

3. Parents Permit and Medical Certificate is a must, and this will be kept by the chaperons.

You are requested to submit your reports to your respective GSP District Field Advisers/ High School Coordinator or to the GSP Office.

Hope this girl-scouting event merits support and cooperation from the field.

Thank you.
