ADVISORY

SUBJECT: PSA Issued Copy and NSO Issued Copy of Birth Certificate is The Same

This Advisory is issued for the information of all concerned especially for teachers, parents and learners. A letter from Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) dated May 31, 2018 was received by this office stating that the birth certificate issued by the NSO is the same as the birth certificate issued now by the PSA. The birth certificate issued has no expiration. Hence, it can be used for any legal purpose and reference. Thus, the original NSO copy of birth certificate is sufficient for purposes of enrollment or graduation and no need to require the learners to submit PSA issued copy of birth certificate.

For immediate dissemination and compliance.
