MESSAGE

My warmest greetings to the organizers and participants of the 21st Moral Recovery Program National Convention-Workshop.

Corruption remains among the greatest banes in our bureaucracy, our society and our nation. It is a problem that perpetuates a vicious cycle of poverty, hopelessness and apathy, and robs our people of their right to secure a better future for themselves and their families.

I am thus pleased to know that the Moral Recovery Officers Foundation, Inc. is conducting this workshop, which complements the government's own Integrity Management Program, as institutionalized through Executive Order No. 176.

Indeed, even as this administration directly confronts corrupt practices, there is still a need to re-inculcate these time-tested values among our public servants. This will ensure that values such as honesty and integrity remain rooted in public service.

With the active engagement of your sector and our other partners in this vital task, I am sure that our goal of building a government that truly serves the interest of our people will soon become a reality.

May you have a productive convention-workshop.
